

Must-have with your next cuppa

At less than the price of a cup of coffee, you just have to buy it. Everyone else uses that sales pitch so we will go with the flow.

We urge all members and friends of the Arts Alliance to buy our anthology 5 Strong Bricks in the Wall

The eBook 5 Strong Bricks in the Wall is only $3.29.

Everyone can enjoy this eBook with five illustrated stories on their computer, tablet or eReader.

As an additional favour, we ask you put in a review, once you have read the eBook.

You buy the book and review it at the one location HERE

As long as you are NOT one of the 5 authors, you can do a review.

A few guidelines for the review

1. 50-125 words,
2. Do mention the stories and their style but
3. Don't spoil the story.
4. Do certainly mention the illustrations.
5. Be honest in your review – say what you think about the book.

The reason we want to promote 5 Strong Bricks is it is only $3.29 and it gives readers an introduction to our full length anthologies.

Again buy the book and put in your review HERE

These five illustrated stories from authors of the Moreton Bay region are selected for their powerful engagement with the reader.

Jenna Caitens has a poignant tale of homeless waif, Sash. The story is strikingly illustrated by Jenna's Mum, award-winning artist Michelle Caitens.

Best-selling author Peter Bowler presents a devilishly whimsical tale which will have the reader smiling throughout, unless they burst into gales of laughter.

Jacki Smith provides a haunting tale of troubled love.

For a change of pace, Matthew Munro's thriller is an adrenalin-pumper, speeding to its eagerly awaited resolution.

Audrey Sanderson's witty account of an anniversary party is an anthem for those determined to grow old disgracefully.

We believe after you have sampled the works of authors from Pine Rivers and surrounding districts, you will want more.

Think of it as buying intellectual nourishment on special. Buy HERE